

CALIFORNIA ASSISTED LIVING ASSOCIATION HONORS ATRIA STAFF MEMBERS
Atria employees recognized with Excellence in Service Awards

Louisville, KY (May 25, 2024) — Atria Senior Living, a leading operator of senior living communities across the United States and Canada, is proud to announce that Ingrid Weber, Life Guidance Director at Atria El Camino Gardens, and Sulpicia Caburi, Waitstaff at Atria Walnut Creek, have each received an Excellence in Service Award from the California Assisted Living Association (CALA). The awards will be presented on June 5 at the Spring 2024 CALA Conference and Trade Show.

Weber has been a staple of her community for 23 years, and Caburi has been putting smiles on the faces of older adults for 30 years. Their contributions go far beyond their job responsibilities, as Weber and Caburi regularly go the extra mile to make Atria residents feel at home. Their passion for serving others is evident in every aspect of their work.

“You can’t do this job without putting your whole heart into it,” Weber said. “I love that I get to make a difference in someone’s day just by being their friend.”

As Life Guidance Director at Atria El Camino Gardens, Weber leads operations, training and resident engagement of the community’s memory care neighborhood. Atria’s Life Guidance neighborhoods are safe, secure environments purposefully designed for those living with Alzheimer’s and other forms of dementia.

“Ingrid and Sulpicia are exemplary of Atria’s dedication to quality and service,” says Aron Alexander, Regional Vice President at Atria. “They embrace each day as an opportunity to make a positive impact. From dawn till dusk, they selflessly devote themselves to the betterment of our communities and the happiness of our residents.”

Caburi possesses an exceptional ability to connect with older adults.

“The residents are like my family, and I love making them smile,” Caburi said. “I enjoy singing to them and dancing with them after dinner. I’m very happy to be a part of the Atria family.”

Eight Atria employees have been recognized in the past four years among all California assisted living workers. Criteria for these annual awards includes contributing to the work environment personally and professionally, providing outstanding customer service, treating residents, staff and families with dignity and respect, and demonstrating extraordinary dedication.

In addition to independent living, assisted living and memory care services, Atria El Camino Gardens and Atria Walnut Creek also offer housekeeping, concierge service, scheduled transportation, and a robust calendar of events, activities and outings. Atria El Camino Gardens also received the A Place for Mom Best of Senior Living Award for 2023 based on reviews of residents and family members.
