ATRIA CELEBRATES 44 CARING STAR AWARD WINNERS
2024 Award Determined by Top Reviews from Residents and Families on Caring.com

Louisville, KY (December 2023) – Atria Management Company, LLC (Atria), is proud to announce 44 communities from their Atria Senior Living and Holiday by Atria brands have been honored with the 2024 Caring Star award. The award is determined by the reviews of residents and their families on Caring.com, a leading senior living referral service.

“Our team works hard year-round to create vibrant environments for our residents to enjoy and their families to rest easy knowing their parent or family member has the support they need,” said Melanie Bedell, Vice President of Sales for Atria. “With so many of our communities receiving this year’s Caring Star honors, Atria is leading the way in delivering a quality senior living experience.”

Improving the Senior Living Experience from the Start

Many older adults and their families start the senior living search process online. Every Atria Senior Living and Holiday by Atria community’s webpage shares available floor plans and pricing, as well as customer reviews to showcase the community’s culture. This transparency allows consumers to streamline their search by providing important information early in the process.

“My mom is so happy here,” says a resident’s family member in a recent review on Holiday Whealdon Estates’ Caring.com profile. “She loves that she doesn’t have to cook anymore. She enjoys three fantastic meals a day. She enjoys all the events and making new friends. It’s like a cruise ship on land! There is always something fun to do. Whealdon Estates was the perfect choice for her new home.”
