

5 Classic Campfire Songs for Celebrating the Great Outdoors

Whether you're roasting marshmallows or just want to feel the glow, get started with these timeless tunes. Sing loud and off-key, make up verses and laugh a lot – it's all part of the fun!

1 This Land Is Your Land

This folk anthem celebrates the American landscape while acknowledging inequities laid bare by the Great Depression.

*This land is your land, this land is my land
From California to the New York island...*

2 Home on the Range

This slow, sweet cowboy tune is perfect for starlit nights. It became the Kansas state song in 1947.

*Oh, give me a home where the buffalo roam
Where the deer and the antelope play...*

3 John Jacob Jingleheimer Schmidt

This loud, silly ditty was born on a vaudeville stage and gained popularity through the Boy and Girl Scouts.

*John Jacob Jingleheimer Schmidt
His name is my name too...*

4 She'll Be Coming 'Round the Mountain

This song's melody was taken from the African American spiritual "When the Chariot Comes." After the titular verse, pick up one of the lines below. Or, make up your own!

She'll be driving six white horses when she comes...

Oh, we'll all go out to meet her when she comes...

5 B-I-N-G-O

Sing additional verses by omitting the first (then second, third, etc.) letter from the previous verse(s) and clapping in place of the letters.

*There was a farmer had a dog,
and Bingo was his name-o.
B-I-N-G-O... B-I-N-G-O...*
