

'Tis the season to be social!

Making new friends is easy during the holidays. Find opportunities near you to go out and join in!

Start with this list.

1

A world for the wise

Check the local senior center calendar for holiday parties, meals and more.

2

Have faith

Churches, synagogues and mosques welcome all to seasonal services, concerts and events.

3

Libre at the library

Inquire about free (libre in Spanish) book clubs, lectures, workshops, etc.

4

Give unto others

Meals on Wheels, Toys for Tots, food pantries and dozens more need your help.

5

Never stop learning

Osher Lifelong Learning Institutes at universities host lectures, trips and gatherings for those 50+.

6

Virtually neighbors

Search Nextdoor, Meetup, AARP and Facebook for local groups hosting in-person gatherings.

7

So much drama!

Check out local productions at community theaters, high schools and universities.

8

Carefree living

Most senior living communities open their seasonal celebrations to all. Join them!
